

B.B. Davis received a Philip Morris postdoctoral fellowship in 2006–2008.

K.E. Pinkerton received research funding from the Phillip Morris Research Management Group from 2003 to 2007, educational funds from the American Thoracic Society to teach a postgraduate course in nanoparticle health effects, and a grant support from the National Institute for Environmental Health Sciences and the California Tobacco-Related Research Program to conduct research in models of tobacco-induced disease in rodents and non-human primates.

T. Goldkorn has received funding for research studies in lung injury and lung cancer from NIH-RO1 and TRDRP.