

K. Boutet: has received $1000-1500 fees from Actelion and Pfizer for speaking to different groups of colleagues on Pulmonary Hypertension in general.

L. Rudski: has received fees for organising education: fundraising from pharmaceutical and echocardiography companies (15 in total) to conduct an annual cardiac imaging symposium. All funds deposited into a research account to cover only the expenses.

R. Schlesinger: had summer-student employment with Imperial Tobacco Canada in the 1970s and is an officer of a private corporation that holds stocks in excess of 10000 USD in Altria Group Inc.